CHEF'S SELECTION

As a chef, I believe that the right wine not only enhances the dish but also elevates the culinary experience as a whole. For my selection I wanted to give you an insight into some of my favourite producers and their wines. Following a recent trip to Japan, I was inspired by the country's incredible craftsmanship, hospitality, and food culture, and have introduced a small selection of different premium sakes alongside the wines.

Please explore, find new favourites and I hope you enjoy your experience with us.
